Robinson, Mrs. Victor Kaufmann, Mrs. Post Wheeler, Mrs. Swift, Mrs. K. Shields, Mrs. Hubert Dent, John E. Osborne, Mrs. Charles Matthews, Mrs. William Wheaton, Miss Susan Biddle and Miss Dorothy Dunn. The rooms were charmingly decorated with palms and flowers. The masses of Killdeer roses and white lilies graced the table.

Mrs. Edward B. McLean was hostess at a luncheon today in compliment to Mrs. Marshall.

Oscar Porter was hostess at a charming luncheon today in honor of Miss Anna Porter and her bride. The guests were Mrs. Porter's mother, Mrs. Lorimer Graham and Miss Harriette Porter, who will be maid of honor at her marriage. The bridesmaids were Miss Genevieve Clark, Mrs. Cornelia Claret, Harriette Marie Harriette, Miss Hanna Taylor, Miss Virginia Fuller and Miss Lucy Martin. Mrs. Harry Williams, of Chicago, formerly Miss Martha Harrison, and Mrs. Nathalie Driggs were the only additional guests.

Miss Kate Du Bose was among those entertaining at luncheon today. The guests of honor was Miss Maudie Marshall. Invited to meet her were the members of her wedding party, Mrs. Philip, Miss Mary Bane, Miss Hazel Funk, Miss Ruth Bliss, Miss A. Heyl, Miss Eleanor Wilson, and Miss Du Bose's sister, Mrs. Luther Gordon.

This afternoon Miss Ruth Bliss is giving a theater party and tea for Miss Marshall, entertaining Miss Du Bose's luncheon party and a few additional guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester A. Barr will be hosts at a dance this evening.

Miss Marguerite Barbour will entertain at dinner this evening, later taking her guests to the McLean dance.

A large attendance is expected at the annual dance for the benefit of the Washington Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital, at Rauscher tomorrow evening.

Much interest is being taken in the return engagement of Mary Antin, who will lecture on "Jewish Life in the East." A session for Antin will be under the auspices of the Housekeepers' Alliance, at the Columbia Theater tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Belle Magruder Dorsett, of Norfolk, Va., who has been ill at the residence of her daughter in this city, is convalescent.

Washington society is much interested in the continued recital of "Merry Songs from Many Lands," by Miss Edith M. Searle, assisted by George Aldrin, pianist, on Thursday morning, April 23, at the Hotel Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. William Buckner McCarty, of Falls Church, Va., announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathleen, to Charles Everett Mackenbach, of Havana, Cuba.

The marriage of Miss Mary Edith Antin, daughter of Mrs. Edith S. Antin, to John Thaddeus Elker, took place last evening in the First Congregational Church, the Rev. S. M. Newman officiating in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white tulle with a shower of white carnations and lilies. The bride's bouquet was a shower of white carnations and lilies.

The bridesmaids were Miss Deborah Koch, Miss Evelyn Booth, Miss Edna Thomas, Miss Jean Simpson, Miss Rose Carroll, and Miss Maude Elker, sister of the bridegroom. They wore gowns of pale green accented with white and carried golden Gate roses. She wore white feathers in her hair.

The bridegroom was Mr. Thaddeus Elker, brother of the bride. He wore a tuxedo and carried a basket of pink roses. The bride's mother, Mrs. Edith S. Antin, followed the ceremony.

Mrs. Lawson, who assisted her son-in-law, followed the ceremony.

NEED SUPERLATIVES FOR BELASCO OPERA

"Pirates of Penzance" and "H. M. S. Pinafore" Score With Two Audiences.

There is a bond of perfect understanding between the big policeman of "The Pirates of Penzance" and a weary reviewer of plays when four Gilbert and Sullivan operas are produced in rapid succession, requiring four separate and distinct sets of comment.

The lot of neither is a "worry 'appy one" when you've robbed a reviewer of a chance to use his adjectives you've taken all his stock in trade.

Therefore, "Her Majesty's Ship Pinafore" and "The Pirates of Penzance," as produced by Manager William A. Brady's opera company at the Belasco yesterday afternoon and evening, must go down in history, unembellished by a single qualifying term.

After all, there never is any reason for working superlatives threadbare in recounting the effect of Gilbert & Sullivan products on his ultimate consumer. The fact is that there are certain things in the world that represent the "last word" in their particular section of life's activities or amenities.

Gilbert & Sullivan went direct to the heart of their subjects by a route that was peculiarly their own.

"Pinafore" was first produced in 1878, and "The Pirates" followed two years later. Both were just as fresh last night as they were the first night they were produced.

The work of the organization Mr. Brady has brought together showed to remarkable advantage in these two productions. The excellent training of the chorus was given a thorough test, and it proved thoroughly capable. The principal actors, as on the other occasions, fully equal to their tasks.

Mr. Hopper, as Dick Dadaey, in "Pinafore," and the big policeman in "The Pirates," added Hopperism to Gilbertology in just the proportions that were needed. Miss Brady, Miss Caldwell, Miss Edwards, Messrs. Cunningham, Aldridge, Watrous, Thomas, and others were all in perfect command of their jobs all the time, in both performances.

At last night's performance of "The Pirates," President Wilson, a member of the audience, tonight the opera will be repeated.

Woman Doctor Urges Roller Towel Be Banned

Through purification of water and milk, typhoid fever and cholera have been reduced. In the same measure will the use of the roller towel be reduced.

Dr. E. J. W. Burch, the attending physician, said this morning that while the young woman's injuries are serious, she will recover.

The accident happened late yesterday at the second floor. Just as the car was starting, Miss Craig fell or attempted to step off. She fell through the partly opened door, her feet catching in the elevator. The operator made a quick stop, but Miss Craig was thrown heavily against the second floor landing. No bones were broken, but she suffered greatly from shock.

Orphans Fete Knights.

Members of Washington Council, K. of C., were entertained last night with songs and dances at St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum, Edgewood. Sister Lucia directed the exercises.

The party was given by George F. McAvoy, Jr., Joseph A. Mudd, and Charles W. Barr.

GET BALL OUTFITS; LET FRIENDS ASSIST

Many Will Be Glad to Have The Times Delivered Instead of Buying on Street.

By THE PRIZE EDITOR.

Any baseball team in the District and vicinity can be uniformed and equipped absolutely free of cost or labor through The Times. Seems like an exaggeration or just a statement made to get your eye, doesn't it? It's absolutely true, nevertheless.

The uniforms and other equipment necessary can be had without one cent of money. They can be obtained this way: Ask just the persons of your intimate acquaintance whether or not they read The Times. Nine of every ten of them will tell you they do; that they buy it from newsboys on the street every day. Then tell them that they should have it sent to their homes. They could read it there just as conveniently.

Get them to subscribe for The Times for a period of one month, at least. That's all that's necessary. Reading The Times one month means a consistent reader of The Times for many months has been gained. Most of those you ask will read the paper any way, and might just as well be taking it at their homes thereby getting your team uniforms for you.

Outfits will be dispensed according to the following schedule:

FOR TEN SUBSCRIPTIONS for only one month each, as above, we will give one first-class uniform, with a selection from ten colors. The uniform consists of shirt, any style, with monogram or name of not over eight letters; pants, plain, lined or padded; cap, any style; heavy ribbed wool hose and belt.

FOR FIFTY SUBSCRIPTIONS, as above, we will give one second-grade uniform—the same as the first grade, with the exception of the quality of the material.

FOR THIRTY SUBSCRIPTIONS, as above, we will give one third-grade uniform, with a selection of nine colors, the same as first-grade, with the exception of the quality of the material.

WITH TWENTY SUBSCRIPTIONS we will give the choice of a catcher's mitt, bow protector, or a mask.

FOR TWELVE SUBSCRIPTIONS we will give one Bench Official's American League ball, cork center.

FOR TEN SUBSCRIPTIONS we will give one Baseball team or individual (with a selection of nine colors) can take advantage of this offer. MEMBERS OF TEAMS OR INDIVIDUALS SHOULD SEND US THEIR NAMES AND ADDRESSES IMMEDIATELY. AND WE WILL FORWARD THEM SUBSCRIPTION BLANKS, RECEIPTS, AND ANY OTHER MATERIAL NECESSARY TO START THE CAMPAIGN.

Each subscriber obtained must be a new order to the DAILY AND SUNDAY TIMES FOR ONE MONTH—that is, some one who had not taken The Daily and Sunday Times regularly thirty days previous to March 31, 1914.

Each subscriber agrees to take The Daily and Sunday Times for one month, paying 25 cents for the subscription, in advance.

No one connected with The Times Company, employees direct or indirect, is eligible to take advantage of this offer.

N. J. GAYNOR WEDS MISS PAGE TONIGHT

Ceremony To Be Solemnized in Historic Rectory of Church at Fairfax Court House.

In the historic rectory of the Zion Episcopal Church, at Fairfax Court House, Va., Norman J. Gaynor, son of the late Mayor Gaynor of New York, and Miss Retsy Page, daughter of the Rev. Frank Page, of Fairfax Court House, and a niece of Thomas Nelson

Page, Ambassador to Italy, will be married this evening.

From all parts of the Old Dominion, from New York, Washington, and other places, several hundred guests have assembled at the famous seat of Fairfax county to attend the wedding.

Solemnization of the marriage will awake memories associated with the old rectory. It was in this old building that General Mosby and his men captured Braxton General Stoneman, of the Union army, during the civil war.

The night of Mosby's raid was recalled with the history of the structure. Miss Antonia Ford, a Virginia girl, was accused of being Mosby's accessory, and Major Willard, member of the prominent Washington family, was sent to arrest her. He fell in love with the fair prisoner, and they were later married. Their son is Joseph Willard, American Ambassador to Spain.
